

Name: _____

QUIZ 13 - ICS 415 Fall 2017

Today we started covering the second chapter of the ASP.NET textbook. Answer the following fill-in-the-blank questions.

1. To work with the folders and files of a web application, you use the _____.
2. To add a control to a web page, you use the _____ of the Web Forms Designer.
3. To modify the properties of a control with the Web Forms Designer, you use the _____.
4. You can use a feature of Visual Studio called _____ to help you enter common blocks of code.
5. As you enter code in Visual Studio, the _____ feature provides lists of coding options that you can enter by selecting and pressing the Tab key.
6. If you want the compiler to ignore a portion of aspx or C# code without deleting it, you can select the code and make it a/an _____.
7. One way to get more control over flow layout, which is the default layout for Visual Studio 2015, is to use _____.
8. A validation control is used to validate the user entry for another control when the focus leaves the control or when a button is clicked that has its _____ property set to True.
9. If you don't want all of the validation controls to do their validating when a button control is clicked, you can set the button's _____ property to False.
10. You use the Code Editor to create _____ handlers that respond to the events of a web form.