

Name: _____

QUIZ 19 - ICS 415 Fall 2017

Answer the following questions from Chapter 4.

1. The non-page class files for an ASP.NET web application are stored in the _____ folder for the project.
2. The database files for an ASP.NET web application are stored in the _____ folder for the project.
3. The CSS files for an ASP.NET web application are stored in the _____ folder for the project.
4. You can use an existing class that's in another application in a new web application by _____ the class to the new application.
5. If an existing class is stored in a class library, you can use it in a new web application by adding a _____ to it.
6. The problem with the cross-page posting feature is that it makes it more difficult to get data from the _____ web page.
7. All but one of these statements about the Redirect method of the HttpResponse class is true. Which one is false?
 - a. This method causes the server to send a special message to the browser that tells it what page to request.
 - b. This method causes the current page to be terminated and a new page to be processed in its place.
 - c. This method causes the browser to be updated to reflect the address of the new page.
 - d. This method is less efficient than using the Transfer method of the HttpServerUtility class.
8. All but one of these statements about the Transfer method of the HttpServerUtility class is true. Which one is false?
 - a. This method involves a round trip to the browser.
 - b. The processing for this method takes place on the server.
 - c. This method is typically used only if performance is critical.
 - d. This method does not affect session state.
9. When would you typically use the RedirectPermanent method to display another page?
 - a. When the page is located at another website
 - b. When the page resides in the root directory of the web application
 - c. When the page has been moved or renamed
 - d. When you want to avoid an extra round trip to the server
10. If you don't need to retrieve data from the original web page, which is the best way to transfer control to a new page?
 - a. the Server.Transfer method
 - b. the Response.Redirect method
 - c. cross-page posting
 - d. no method is clearly the best